Letter of Registration

- (ii) Registered suppliers shall ordinarily be exempt from resubmitting documents that have already been uploaded on this portal for Vendor Registration in subsequent ONGC tenders, provided that the documents remain valid as per the terms specified in the Letter of Registration (LOR) at the time of bid submission. These documents shall not be required to be submitted again for evaluation purposes in such tenders.
- (iii) The registration and its extensions are not a matter of right. ONGC reserves the right to either deregister vendors or not extend registration without assigning any reason. The decision of ONGC shall be final and binding.
- (iv) ONGC retains the right to reassess registered firms at any time to evaluate their technical capabilities, financial soundness, etc. Based on the review, ONGC may retain or revise their registration status as deemed appropriate.
- (v) This letter of registration shall remain valid for subsequent tenders, provided there is no change in the details, documents, or confirmations submitted during enlistment. In the event of any changes to such details, documents, or confirmations, the vendor shall promptly update the information in their own interest. ONGC shall not be held liable for any consequences arising from failure to do so.
